Making a successful transition to work

To assist you in being successful on the job, Rise’s Pathways for Refugees staff can also help you link up with other services you need. They will also assist you with:

- Learning how to ride public transportation from home and work
- Coordinating and communicating with your county MFIP counselors
- Individual employment counseling
- Visiting you at your work site or off-site to give you follow-up job support
- Identifying other educational and program services in the community you may need
- Bridging (for household items)
- Financial literacy training
- Employment workshops

What people say about Rise services

“My dream always was to work in the United States and make the most of all the opportunities available here. I did not want to just sit at home taking benefits from the government; I wanted to go to work and have a good job. If a person wants to get somewhere, he does whatever it takes to improve.”
- Warsame Warsaali, Amazon Fulfillment Center

“My wife Riziki and I needed assistance from Rise and we very much appreciate the support, advice and help we received so we can achieve our dreams. We want to adapt to our new life here in the United States as fast as we can. It is so good to have freedom and dignity.”
- Pierre Gatara, Marsden Services
- Riziki Appoline, Air Serv Facilities Services
RISE’S MISSION
